About our Discipline Policy: Positive affirmation and a busy, enjoyable activity schedule is the first step to insure a camper's best behavior. Camp procedures and rules are in place to insure the best atmosphere and safety to all. The first course of discipline will be time out, loss of participation in activities (including field trips and swimming). If misbehavior is severe or continues a written conduct notice will be sent home for parent's signature. This signed notice must be returned to office before Child may be re-admitted to camp. To keep a camper from being dismissed from the camp further modes of discipline can be agreed upon in writing between the parent/guardian and camp. The camp does reserve the right to dismiss any camper from the camp.
